USD AUXILIARY INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

The Westgate Hotel Riviera Room is the location of the May 14 University of San Diego Auxiliary 1980 Installation Luncheon, as announced by luncheon Chairman Mrs. Charles (Dolores) D'Andrea.

Featured speaker for the 11:00 luncheon is Dr. Georgette McGregor whose topic is "Communicating in the 1980's". Dr. McGregor is a well-known management communication consultant to business, government and the professions. Some of her many clients include Bank of America worldwide, Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation in Beverly Hills, and Barry and Company Engineering Consultants in Los Angeles and Orange County.

Dr. McGregor has served on the San Diego Opera and San Diego Symphony boards of directors. She was honored as a "Woman of Elegance" in 1975 and as Makua Life Patroness in 1977. Her 26-minute film, "Applause", was completed last year and is being used throughout the world as a communications training tool. Dr. McGregor will speak to the Auxiliary members, the newly elected officers and luncheon guests.

Auxiliary officers for 1980-81 were voted in at the Spring Election Luncheon in March. Mrs. Martin (Betty) Barrett was elected President, with Mrs. Walter (Loretta) Wilkins as First Vice President and Mrs. Douglas (Betsy) Manchester as Second Vice President. Elected Recording Secretary was Mrs. George (Gen) Wolfe, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Gilbert (Marion) Brown, and as Treasurer, Mrs. Carl (Gerry) Avilla.
